It's official! The much-anticipated 16th edition of Topco Media's Standard Bank Top Women Leaders publication, is out - and it's gone digital! The proud publication is known for celebrating South African organisations, in both the public and private sectors, that prioritise gender empowerment within their business strategies. The publication drives awareness locally and internationally around the value and impact of women in leadership.

The 16th edition cover is a true celebration of champion women leaders in South Africa, honouring public figures who have gone the extra mile in empowering the country and future generations of young women. Many of these women have been recognised cover stars in previous editions, and are award-winning pioneers in their respective fields. Cover icons include Dr Glenda Gray, South African physician, scientist and activist; Caster Semenya, South African Olympic gold medalist and icon; and Hon. Naledi Pandor, Minister of International Relations and Cooperation, to name but only a few.

Boasting more than 200 pages of quality content, tons of in depth interviews with trailblazing women and critical information regarding top women-empowered companies - this is a bumper edition you simply cannot miss out on! We've gone completely digital, as the Covid-19 pandemic required pivoting and much technological innovation. The convenience of our digimag allows you to simply click straight through to top-tier video and podcast content for your enjoyment.
