

New move to sell East Africa as single tourism unit

The East African Community is working on a strategy that will sell all its five member countries as a single unit in the tourist market.

The initiative will attract more tourist to Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, Burundi and Rwanda, all of which have abundant tourist attractions.

Read the rest of the article

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>