Global winners include Dubai – with its tantalising range of gastronomy from across the globe – named World's Best Culinary Destination. Pierre's Bistro at InterContinental Dubai Festival City picked up the coveted title of World's Best Fine Dining Hotel Restaurant, whilst the innovative seasonal cuisine of Noma helped the Danish restaurant to lift World's Best Restaurant. Fine dining in a spectacular setting in the world's tallest skyscraper helped At.Mosphere Burj Khalifa to collect World's Best Landmark Restaurant.

Portugal's Vila Joya Restaurant was crowned 'World's Best Hotel Restaurant'. In the newcomer category, the Andalusian flair of BiBo Doha was acknowledged with the title for 'World's Best New Restaurant'. Jamaica Food & Drink Festival took the title for World's Best Culinary Festival.

The results follow a year-long search for the world's leading culinary brands. Votes were cast by culinary industry professionals and the general public, with the nominee gaining the most votes in a category named as the winner.

Aside from the global accolades, the World Culinary Awards also recognises culinary achievements across nine regions, including Africa.
