8 Jun 2017

Good news for people-first companies and HR stars. Due to high demand, Future of HR Awards have extended the entries deadline to 9th June. The awards ceremony is scheduled to take place on Thursday evening, 20 July, after the ancillary summit, which takes place on the 19th and the morning of the 20th.

Together they comprise the 3rd annual Future of HR Awards and Summit. Renowned as a high performance initiative in partnership with Careers24, it showcases the impact of human capital on performance, at an organisational, sectoral and economy-wide level.

The awards numbers amongst its alumni such corporate heavy-hitters as DHL Express, PwC and Bowman Gilfillan. Individual accolades, meanwhile, have gone to industry luminaries like Candice Booyesen of Argility and Philip Barnard of GIBB, previous winners of the Rising Star Award and HR Director of the Year Award respectively. They say the first step to winning is entering.

Entries close Friday, 9 June 2017:

Awards categories open for entry:

- Hall of Fame Award
