

ninety9cents named Ad Review's Newcomer Advertising Agency of the Year

Issued by Ninety9cents

3 May 2010

Cape Town-based advertising agency, ninety9cents, was named as best newcomer of the year on Wednesday, 21 April 2010 at Tony Koenderman's Ad Review Awards.

The ninety9cents Team (L-R): Marius van Rensburg (Creative Director), Kim Eksteen (Deputy Managing Director), Andrew Brand (Managing Director)

This annual award ceremony acknowledges and praises those who have excelled in the marketing and advertising space in South Africa.

According to Andrew Brand, managing director at ninety9cents, gaining recognition from the South African marketing industry proves that they are a serious agency with a serious future. "It's extremely rewarding to see our agency philosophy working. Being recognised as the best new agency in South Africa is a wonderful accolade, and fantastic recognition of our incredibly dedicated and hardworking staff at ninety9cents. It's also an enormous endorsement for our wonderful clients who believe in us."

With three Pending finalists, one Silver Pending Award, a Checkers National Supplier of the Year Award and a Loerie finalist, ninety9cents has made a fine appearance since its launch in September 2008.
