2 Mar 2005

The Businesswomen's Association (BWA) has renewed its contract with PR company, Grapevine Communications for a third year to handle the communications campaign for the BWA South African Women in Corporate Leadership Census 2005 and the 2005 Businesswoman of the Year Award.

The BWA is the largest and most prominent association of business and professional women in South Africa and the voice of women in business.

Through strategic partnerships with sponsors, non-profit organisations, leading companies, business schools and international associations, it provides ongoing opportunities to advance the interests of women in business. Members include entrepreneurs, professionals and senior decision makers.
