

Brave Group wins Wits advertising account

The Brave Group has been selected as the advertising partner for Wits University. With experience in a range of industries, the company hopes to establish a powerful and captivating brand identity for the institution in order to increase its exposure, recruit top talent and engage diverse audiences both locally and globally.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>