

Positive Dialogue appoints Ondela Mlandu as head of media

Positive Dialogue, the strategic communications partner within the Duke Group, has appointed Ondela Mlandu as head of media. This newly-created role has been designed with the intention of creating impactful audio and video content across all platforms for Positive Dialogue and Duke Group clients.

Mlandu has extensive working experience in journalism, digital marketing, radio broadcasting and podcasting having previously contributed to Metro FM, Power FM and 2Oceansvibe Radio. She has also contributed to print and digital titles such as Women's Health, Getaway Magazine and True Love.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>