

Bowmans appoints Vanessa Jacklin-Levin to head the Johannesburg litigation practice

Vanessa Jacklin-Levin has been appointed as a partner at Bowmans, tasked with heading the litigation practice in Johannesburg. Her extensive skills encompass litigation, adjudication, arbitration, as well as a keen grasp of risk management, governance and compliance.

She has represented major global corporations, South African listed and non-listed companies, and state-owned enterprises. Among the industries she oversees are mining, energy, construction, retail, real estate, franchising, distribution, infrastructure and public-private partnerships.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>