

Intact Nairobi to service the East Africa region

As part of its expansion strategy in Africa, Intact Software Distribution has opened an office in Kenya. The Nairobi office is to service the entire East Africa region by providing the complete Intact security solutions product along with its service performance.

Intact Nairobi will also be working with several partners who will supply end users and businesses with its product.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>