

Sanral appoints Lehlohonolo Pitse as acting CEO

Lehlohonolo Pitse has been appointed acting CEO of the South African National Roads Agency (Sanral).

Until a permanent successor is named, Pitse will assume the CEO role temporarily from Skhumbuzo Macozoma. Macozoma's contract is due to end on 30 November, but he has requested a leave of absence from 17 November. The Sanral board granted the request.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>