

DHL to manage Mars

Mars Africa and DHL Supply Chain South Africa have signed a contract that will see DHL manage the warehousing and distribution of Mars' local product categories nationally.

DHL is to meet the requirements of Mars by utilising its multi-user network across the country.

Distribution will take place from stock holding points situated in South Africa's major cities.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>