Yanga, who wowed South Africa during her performance on the reality show, was surprised with the announcement on Cape Town's biggest breakfast show, Kfm Mornings with Darren Sherlin and Sibs on Thursday.

"Yanga's vocal prowess is unmatched, and she is loved by the people Cape. We could not think of a more fitting addition to the line-up, and can't wait for her to impress the more than 15,000 Capetonians who will attend the city's premier music event," said Kfm 94.5 Programming Manager, Stephen Werner.

Werner added: "Yanga is part of Cape Town's musical triple-threat along with Craig Lucas and Paxton, who have both previously set the Huawei KDay stage on fire. We celebrated Yanga's announcement with a special festive performance by the trio, and will continue to support the Cape's winning melodic trinity through their music careers."

"I was completely overwhelmed by celebrating the announcement in song with my idols, Craig Lucas and Paxton. I am beyond excited about being added to the impressive line-up for Huawei KDay.
