

AFP-Services rebrands as Factstory

Agence France-Presse subsidiary, AFP-Services, has rebranded as Factstory, a distinct service offering commissioned production to companies and institutions.

Factstory is a production company with business and institutional contracts, and works with a global production network, combining strong image expertise and journalistic vision.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>