The City Lodge Hotel at Two Rivers Mall, Nairobi, has been awarded four-star rating from the Tourism Regulatory Authority in Kenya. The hotel "successfully scored 100% on essential items as required by the East African Community grading procedure", confirms the report.

The 171-room City Lodge Hotel at Two Rivers Mall, Nairobi, opened on 15 January 2018 and is the group's biggest development outside of South Africa. It is conveniently located adjacent to the Two Rivers Mall in Runda, East Africa's largest shopping mall and mixed-use precinct. Key features include Wi-Fi, two 20-seater boardrooms, two eight-seater meeting rooms, fitness room, #Café restaurant serving breakfast, lunch and light evening meals, outdoor swimming pool and sundowner bar. Miriam Obegi, a Kenyan, is general manager and heads up a team of local staff members.

The City Lodge Hotel Group now has three hotels in Nairobi, part of its East Africa expansion programme, including the four-star 127-room Fairview Hotel and two-star 84-room Town Lodge Upper Hill, both sharing extensive grounds with landscaped gardens in the heart of Nairobi. All three hotels are in important growth nodes and meet the needs of business and leisure travellers visiting Kenya.

Andrew Widegger, CEO of CLHG, says, “We are very proud of our team at City Lodge Hotel at Two Rivers Mall, Nairobi, for their hard work in ensuring our guests enjoy an exceptional hospitality experience. The hotel’s four-star classification is important because it reassures business and leisure travellers that their expectations of quality standards and exceptional service will be met.”
