

Cassilda Ntsane to head The Regency Group's sales team

Hotel chain, The Regency Group has appointed Cassilda Ntsane as its new head of sales. Before signing on to The Regency Group, Ntsane was the sales manager (regional corporate and Africa) at Protea Hotels.

She holds a marketing management diploma (MMA) from Varsity College as well as Bachelor of Arts degree from Wits University and completed a hotel management course via the Wits Hotel School. She developed her senior management and government liaison experience through mining key accounts through various customer contacts in corporate, travel trade, and the public sector respectively.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>