

Westin Cape Town welcomes new director of operations

The Westin Cape Town has appointed Shaun Bertram Tregoning as its new director of operations. He holds a certificate in hotel management, which he obtained through Cape Peninsula University of Technology (CPUT).

After obtaining his qualification, he completed an internship at the Ritz in Sea Point and the Protea Hotel Knysna. Since then he's held several positions at hotels across the country including the Southern Sun, Protea Hotels, as well as Sun International in South Africa and Zambia.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>