

Adone Events launches African Air Expo SA

Adone Events has announced the launch of the African Air Expo SA, the first international aviation exhibition for South Africa. The event will cover the growth of the aviation sector, as well as supporting industries, such as tourism, cargo and human capital development.

The event will feature a three-day static display of 100 aircraft, making it the first of its kind on the African continent.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>