playing Joburg's best old school and RnB

Sasha Martinengo will host Joburg's Hottest Breakfast Show from 6- 9am. Joining him will be the team of John Walland, Andy Leve, Simon Hill and Kwanele Kunene. Martinengo has radio in his Italian blood, having been on the South African airwaves almost three decades.

A new voice joins the team, with the debut of Bunny Majaja who will host the 2-4pm slot. She is a recent graduate of the Hot 91.9FM radio academy, demonstrating the talent available and the value of unearthing and grooming new talent, for the future of radio.

Sports presenter, John Walland will host his own show from 6.30-7pm, Monday to Thursday, called Hot Sport. Andy Leve also takes on a new show every Sunday from 6-9pm called The Sound of SA showcasing the latest and hottest South African sounds.

Treasure Tshabalala will be added to another slot on his hot rotation, with Jazzland every Sunday from 9pm to midnight.

Founder and md Lloyd Madurai commented, "The station prides itself on its on-air blend of established household names and emerging new talent. Our radio training academy, now in operation for over two years, has trained and developed up and coming radio talent free of charge and proves that the station is not only is Joburg's best old school and R&B station but also continues to make a meaningful difference within our community."
