The deadline to enter the Loeries® has been extended to 31 May, giving marketers and agencies an extra two weeks to be part of Africa and the Middle East's biggest creative awards.

With entry categories that include all spheres of the brand communication landscape from film and video, to architecture and design, PR, digital and even shared value and service design - the Loeries anticipates over 3000 entries from more than twenty countries that will be judged by industry experts and global thought leaders.

This year the Loeries have introduced a number of new awards including the SANBS Public Service Award and the Facebook Challenge in the Student Awards category.

Said Loeries CEO, Andrew Human, "this is the last opportunity for brands to showcase their best work and be recognised across our region. All work produced up to 31 May can be entered."
