

New Braza at Emperors

The new Braza restaurant opened on Wednesday, 2 December 2009, at Emperors Palace, coinciding with the redesign of its menus, which were launched at all Braza restaurants early in December.

Behind this successful chain of Moçambique-styled restaurants, are restaurateurs George and Fats Lazarides with George Nichas and Pedro De Sambento. They are the same people who developed the thriving Ocean Basket franchise chain.

It is based on the concept of the adventurous nature of the customs, cultures, tastes and flavours that were discovered by Portuguese explorers, personified by Manuel and his bold journeys made in search of new flavours, which he brings home for all to enjoy. This is one of its exciting offerings; the other is the giant Moçambique flame grill at the centre of every restaurant.
