

Beeld honoured at Media24 awards

Beeld's chief photographer Halden Krog and education journalist Alet Rademayer have come out tops in the Media24 Newspaper Journalist of the Year Competition. Krog won the prize for the Photograph of the Year (2005) for his image of the body of a Zimbabwean asylum-seeker found in an Ennerdale graveyard, and Rademayer took home the award for Investigative Journalist of the Year (2005) for her controversial exposé on the irregularities in the matric examinations in Mpumalanga.
