The annual awards are a global showcase of South Africa's talented film and TV industry and were broadcast live to VooVix TV, ensuring viewers from around the world were part of the excitement.

The awards honoured the exceptional talents that graced our screens and brought stories to life.

The Award winners are voted for by the public and this year over 1.7 million TV/Film fans voted.

The awards show produced by the National Film Academy with versions in the UK and US has expanded to South Africa with a mission to promote, celebrate and provide exposure for actors, actresses, films, programmes and the film and TV industry in South Africa to a global audience.
