Mike Sharman

Mike Sharman - Retroviral

'Virality is Earned: the present-future of PR play'

Mike Sharman founded Retroviral Agency in 2010 and has since made more brands 'go truly viral, globally' than any other agency in Africa - such as Nando's Last Dictator Standing, RYOBI, RocoMamas, Douwe Egberts, Russell Hobbs, My Kreepy Teacher for Kreepy Krauly, and Sixty60 Swindler for Checkers Sixty60.

Named Top 40 Under 40 in the media category this year, in his BizTrends2024 Report 'Virality is Earned: the present-future of PR play' Sharman will explain how integrated marketing has been replaced with what he refers to as 'interconnected marketing', using the example of the agency's latest blockbuster - The Granboks - branded content series created for Castle Lager's Rugby World Cup 2023, which became Mzansi's most watched sporting event of the year, as well as how to talk to consumers across a multiverses, metaverses, multi-tasks and multi-disciplines, from TikTok to a news broadcast, with the invitation to 'play naked, gang!'
