

Join Cook Franschhoek in June

Franschhoek Wine Valley prepares for its annual Cook Franschhoek, an interactive hands-on demonstration, presented by some of the Valley's highly acclaimed chefs and winemakers, on the weekend of 14 - 16 June 2013.

The demonstrations will allow guests the opportunity to not only interact with the chefs and winemakers but also master the art of intricate dishes. With the focus on exclusivity, each demonstration will range from 8-30 people and costs will differ by establishment.

This year visitors can choose to attend demonstrations offering a beautifully prepared and paired meal and wine as part of the offering, or simply a stand-alone demonstration. This allows visitors the opportunity to attend more than one demonstration during the course of the weekend, ensuring a memorable experience.
