

Hortgro appoints Angelo Petersen as new board director

Angelo Petersen is officially a board director of Hortgro. Petersen has more than 25 years' experience as a senior executive, board director, general manager, and leader in the private and public sectors.

Petersen spoke on his appointment, saying:

“ I want to help create an enabling environment to increase the export competitiveness of the pome and stone fruit industries, and to contribute to the ongoing transformation initiatives in the sector. ”

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>