

Van Aswegen to head Embury's academics

The Embury Institute for Higher Education has appointed Dr Berendien van Aswegen as the head of academics at its Gauteng campuses. Van Aswegen will oversee academic operations at the higher education institute's two new Gauteng campuses; Montana and Waterfall.

Van Aswegen has extensive experience, stemming from a long career in primary schools, high schools as well as private higher education institutions. As head of academics at Embury's Gauteng campuses, Van Aswegen is responsible for providing strong academic leadership and vision for the brand.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>