

Uganda, Iran's gateway into Africa: envoy

Gorgan: The Ugandan Ambassador to Tehran, Mohammad Ahmad Kissule announced earlier this week that Uganda can be an appropriate gateway for Iranian investors to enter African markets.

During his visit to northern Golestan Province, he said that Uganda has the capacity to expand its exports of tea, coffee, agro products, and bananas to Iran.

Read the full article here.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>